Basketball Season Opner Delayed

Due to the extended football season which kept many of the Raiders from basketball practice, the season opener will be delayed until December 13.

Coach Howard Clabough is trying to whip the team into shape and take a real good look at all the hopefuls before making the cuts later this week.

Eleven of the players, who turned out for practice, have some varsity experience including seniors, Joe Fraley, Tony Hancock, Arthur Haskins and Warren Austin. Juniors back from last year are, Larry Kelso, Steve Cobb, Phil Pauliette, Stanley Megginson and Byron Roach. Two sophomores who saw a lot of action last year as freshmen are Shane Abernathy and Mike Campbell.

Since Coach Clabough is new in Seminole District basketball he will not make any predictions but says the team is hustling has a lot of enthusiasm and shows a lot of promise.

A scheduled scrimmage this week with Randolph Henry High School did not materialize, nevertheless Clabough hopes to have his Raiders ready for the first game at Buckingham on Dec. 13.

FACTS & FIGURES

According to the United States Bureau of Economic Analysis, Americans spend about $60 billion on clothing every year. Back in the 1950's, we spent less than a third of that.

According to industry economists, a new cotton dust standard would require the cotton industry to purchase up to $2.6 billion in new equipment and would drive up consumer apparel and home furnishings prices. Industry leaders say the unneeded regulations are an example of regulatory overkill.

Cable TV: Making Air Waves

You may soon have a better chance of seeing what you want to see on TV. New cable TV systems can offer up to 36 channels of programming and information services — far more than conventional broadcast TV. Reaching 42 million people, a fifth of the nation, cable TV now has the national audience necessary to support special, made-for-cable programming.

Unlike a broadcast station which must appeal to the largest possible mass audience on its one channel, cable can dedicate individual channels to the interests of smaller, special audiences. Cable viewers can see uninterrupted movies, sports not carried on broadcast TV, community shopping guides, 24-hour news channels, church services and school programs, in addition to more and clear local TV pictures.

Interestingly, cable TV is already the largest domestic user of communications satellite technology for TV programming.

Miss Michelle Tweedy of Concord was maid of honor. Miss Tweedy is the niece of the bride, and she wore a floor length gown of marmalade brocade. Her bouquet was fashioned after the bride's.

The other attendants were Mrs. Glenn Doss of Concord, cousin of the bride; Miss Ida Moore of Concord, cousin of the bride; Miss Debbie Moore of Appomattox; Miss Debbie Almond of Lynchburg, and Miss Lisa Almond of Lynchburg. Their gowns and bouquets were the same as the honor attendant.

Mr. Barry Meador, of Moneta, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Kevin Meador of Moneta, brother of the groom, and Wayne Tuck of Richmond, brother of the bride; Charles Tweedy of Concord, brother of the bride; Jerry Moore of Concord, cousin of the bride, and Timmy Moore of Concord, cousin of the bride.

The flower girls were Miss Mindy Meador of Moneta, niece of the groom, and Miss Melanie Morris of Concord. They wore floor length gowns of pale marmalade crepe, and carried baskets of flower petals. Master Robert Tuck, of Richmond, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Miss Jacqueline Cobbs presented a program of nuptial music with Mrs. Ann Reynolds, soloist, both of Appomattox.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Tuck entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall, honoring the bride and groom.

After their wedding trip, the bride and groom will make their home in Concord.
